Trans Connection: Coming together in uncertain times

A space for trans, non-binary and gender-questioning students to meet and connect.

This art and discussion-based workshop will explore community building, self-care, social and medical transition, advocacy, and safety in the current political climate.

Join us on November 22nd from 2:00p.m. to 3:30p.m.

For food, fun, and some thought-provoking conversations.

For more information and to register email: thecenter@yorku.ca